

I'm not in favor with this petition in that one can not always get the high-tech modes and equipment to work in adverse enviroments. Code knowlege would really help in dire need during a disaster or event of Homeland Security needs.